Conference

28.10.2025 in Berlin, Germany

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

we hereby invite you to this year's ENASP conference on 28.10.2025 from 1:30 pm.

Under the motto Agriculture and Social Protection in the Age of Technological Transformation, Digitalization and AI, outstanding speakers will present and comment on the following topics:

- Impact of new technologies on occupational safety and health in agriculture and forestry
- Transforming Agriculture through robotics, AI, and augmented reality
- How AI and Digitalisation can Reshape Working Conditions of farmers and farm workers

At 18:30, we look forward to a successful exchange at an evening event with a dinner speech, to which you are also cordially invited.

I look forward to welcoming you personally in Berlin!

Yours Sincerely

Martin Empl, ENASP President
